HOME GUARDS TO QUELL I. W. W. RIOTS THROUGHOUT CONTRA COSTA CO. IS ORDER GIVEN

CHARGES WITHDRAWN, CITY COUNCIL EXONERATES CHIEF WALKER OF POLICE SCANDAL

Between hisses and cheers, the city council exonerated Chief of Police Charles H. Walker from charges of drunkenness, perjury and incompetency last evening, which had been preferred by Mrs. Clara Wilson, president of the W. C. T. U. Society, but which were withdrawn by her on the advice of Attorney C. S. Hannum and so ended Walker's fifth police scandal.

CLERK READS. CHARGE WITHDRAWAL.

With the opening of the hearing, the city clerk read the requests of Mrs. Clara Wilson and Attorney C. S. Hannum, representing protestants asking that the charges be withdrawn. Hannum's communication stated he would not be present "unless called by the council."

HARTNETT SPEAKS.

Councilman Hartnett here stated: "It should make no difference to this council whether Attorney Hannum shows up or not. That's optional with him so far as we are concerned."

DELAP SAYS DEFENSE READY.

Attorney T. H. Delap, who with Attorney Lee D. Windrem represented Chief Walker said:

"We are here on behalf of Chief Walker to refute each and every one of the charges made against out client. We are ready to proceed with the case if the council so desires. It will take up much of the council's valuable time which we would refrain from doing but which we deem advisable at this time in order to clear Chief Walker of the charges made against him.

"This man is charged with a penitentiary offense. It has cost him money to employ attorneys, the echoes of which he will probably hear as long as he lives. The time

"CHARGES IN CASE COULD HAVE BEEN EASILY AMENDED"

—ALVIN GERLACH

I was originally consulted and employed by Mr. Phillips in connection with this matter. I drew the original charges from data and other evidence furnished me at the time, just as any other attorney would have done under the circumstances. Later on on I withdrew from the case because of my family connection with the Council.

Although I have no personal interest in the matter, I am totally at a loss to understand why the charges should have been withdrawn. If the charges as drawn did not suit the attorney who later represented the complainant, they could easily have been amended. The attorney who took this matter up certainly knew what evidence he had before he went before the Council.

Originally filed, each of these charges were backed up by sworn affidavits.

Independent Democratic

PRACTICAL PATRIOTISM

Half-baked "intellectuals" need a spanking now and then, and we know of nobody better qualified to give it that the old-fashioned type of American citizen who wears cowhide top boots and chaws Kentucky twist—vide John Calhoun Allen, St., of the Cumberland range. John Calhoun Allen, Jr., was born in the mountains himself, but in what appears to have been an evil hour for him he learned to set type at the county seat and became, later, a journeyman printer with a roving commission. In time he reached New York, where he heard of socialism, anarchy and other exotics that had never penetrated his native fastness. He became a convert, and last month, when his "high priestess," the Goldman person advised against registration, he refused to register, and was sent to jail. There were so few slackers in the United States that a report of this isolated instance of disloyalty found its way to the home of he senior Allen. Mr. Allen, Sr., had never been "No'th," but he started almost instanter. Monday he shouldered his six feet two of stature and two hundred pounds of solid avoirdupois in the United States Marshal's office and casually asked for the address of Allen, Jr. He was informed that Allen, Jr., was occupying a fairly comfortable cell in the Tombs. "Lead me to him," said the old man, but instead he "led" the junior into the United States Marshal's office, where he was careful at first to keep out of the sweep of his father's hand. "Git me," said the elder Allen, in effect, "a registration blank." It was gotten

"Sign on the dotted line, son," observed the old man, in a voice the import of which the young man evidently understood, for he signed, and will enlist before being drafted. He has two brothers in the service.

The elder Allen, who is of Revolutionary stock, is to be congratulated upon his ability to exercise parental authority over a son of no longer of nonage; and the younger Alles is to be congratulated upon having a father of whom any American citizen might be proud.

THE U. S. NAVY

In the American navy's first encounter with U-boats the U-boats were driven away—those of them not shattered by American gunfire and sent to the bottom. This is in keeping with the traditions of our navy, which has no record of defeats where it has met an enemy on anything like equal terms. The fact that the attack was made at night is as gratifying as it is significant. The result proves that this twentieth century shark of the seas cannot ambush our transports so long as they are convoyed by warships properly equipped with searchlights.

The news of the engagement was given to the American people as a feature of Independence Day celebration and it caused a thrill of pride on our prowess and joy in our strength to run from coast to coast and from Canada to the Gulf of Mexico.

Nor are we disturbed in the least to learn that U-boats are venturing farther to sea. Their withdrawal in considerable numbers from European waters will help us to solve the food problem for our soldiers abroad and for our allies. Our navy is able to take care of itself and of the army transports. The war is on in earnest now, and the end, we may hope, is almost in sight.

The single sinister feature of the attack is found nearer home than the mid-Atlantic, closer than the waters that wash our own shores. It has been proved that spies are abroad and active—that the enemy moved when our transports sailed. Had the attack proved successful many lives would have been sacrificed through the agency of these spies who must be hunted down and disposed of in the manner prescribed by the grim usages of war.

THE RUSSIAN OFFENSIVE

For the first time since the Czar of Russia was set down and began hoeing potatoes the Russians are fighting. Von Hindenburg sent a proposal for an armistice to the Russians, asking them to cease fighting until the last of September, and their answer was a furious attack on the Germans and Austrians along the Galacian front. The Teutons were driven back, many of them were killed and wounded, and more than 19,000 were taken prisoners. Very good for a beginning. The Russian army is said to be in first class condition, and are fighting with great spirit and zeal under their famous commander, General Brusiloff, and the heroic Minister of war, Alexander Kerensky.

The re-entrance of Russia into the war, well armed and equipped with plenty of ammunition, means much to the Allies. Already, it is reported, Von Hindenburg has been sent to the Austrian headquarters to see what he can do to turn the tide. It is the Russian intention to split the German and Austrian forces in two and then destroy the Austrians. The Russians always have found the Austrians easy prey—nearly a million of them are in Siberia now in prison camps. If Brusiloff succeeds in his intentions it probably will put Austria out of the fighting. She is tired of it now, and has been seeking peace at almost any terms for four months. This will leave the Allies free to turn their whole attention to Germany, with millions of Russians attacking on the East and Americans and French and British, reinforced perhaps by Italians, assailing them on the West. The Russians campaign means much, as we have said, and it is not impossible that it may mean the end of things for the Teutons.

COUNTY OFFICIALS EXPECT TO WIN ON SATURDAY

In the past few days the baseball team of the city council has said little or nothing of its prowess—perhaps because but two days separate them from another benefit game with the County officials. The last game was won by the council.

"Thinugs will be different Saturday" comes the echo from Martinez and immediately the rumor starts that the county seaters intend "roping in a bunch of professionals. The proceeds of Saturday's game will go to the Red Cross.

CHARGES WITHORAWN, WALKER EXONERATED

has come when the council should put a stop to this sort of thing.

"There has been fictitious charges made against Chief Walker and we intend to refute everyone of them.

"Some of our witnesses are the best business people of Richmond.

'I would ask at this time that the council pass a resolution exonerating Chief Walker from each and everyone of the charges made against him. I ask this believing that it is perfectly within our rights."

MAYOR LANE TALKS.

Mayor Lane said:

"It seems at the present time that there is no case before this council, all the charges having been withdrawn. I don't approve of such stuff as it uses up the valuable time of this council. Some of these charges came from people who didn't know very much about law. There is someone responsible for this and is keeping in the background. We all know who he or she is and I would ask at this time that that person come up and apologize."

GERRARD'S STATEMENT.

Ex-Mayor Gerrard said:

"Parties who make charges of this sort must have something the matter with them. They arouse suspicion, it keeps the city in bad and uses up the council's time. This council is perfectly willing to hear charges against any of its city officials at any time. In this case the bottom drops out at the eleventh hour. My advise is that if the people know something about any of the officials, they had better whisper it amongst themselves."

LONG TALKS.

Councilman Long said:

"We have had police scandals in the past and always at the bottom of them has been a discharged official."

He followed this with a motion that Chief Walker be exonerated of all charges made against him. He then asked if onyone was present who had anything to say about the case.

Former Bertillion inspector Virgil Phillips stepped before the council and said, "If this council is satisfied with Walker I am contented."

The resolution exonerating Walker of the charges and also of testimony given against him by witnesses will be introduced at the council meeting Monday night when another police scandal will have been ended.

WHO WILL IT BE.

Out of 63 ball players of the Northwest League which closed yesterday, how many will Richmond get? There are some good ones in the bunch and some of a mediocre color. Manager Dietrich is not saying much but it is understood that he is doing a lot of thinking and figuring.

WANT RETURN GAME.

The Stockton Sperry Flour tea m are itching themselves to death for another crack at the Richmond Elks. "Just one chance" they plead and they claim that Richmond's pennant chances will fade.

MOTOR NORTH.

POWDER TEAM LOSES GAME TO BAY POINT

Rival rooters to the number of 300 from Bay Point and Giant saw Bay Point win Sunday at Bay Point 3 to 0. One-fourth of the crowd came by autos from Giant where baseball is at fever heat. Bay Point played errorless ball while Giant bunched three miscues which with a three-bagger won the game.

Big Heinie Lay the little Melrose Faveto had the prettiest pitching duel of the season. In the end, however, the cant hooks and pike poles of the lumber lads triumphed over the fuses and detoning caps of the powder boys. A threatened mine explosion of runs by Giant in the seventh was nipped in the bud by Lay when he extinguished the sputtering fuse with his spitter. Templeton, formerly of Stanford, was the star for Giant, while Fonseca held the spotlight for Bay Point.

Despite the intense rivalry there was not one kick on Umpire Easly of Giant and Umpire McDonald of Bay Point goes against Bill Steen at Pittsburg, Sunday.
